

Novena to Saint Therese to ask for her help in the Coronavirus crisis

Saint Thérèse of Lisieux on the eve of the liberation of France
You were proclaimed on the 3rd May 1944, Secondary patron of France just like Saint Joan of Arc Following the path of the Virgin Mary.
Today our country, and the whole world is experiencing the plight of the Coronavirus which is decimating and worrying the people.
Saint Therese, we are asking you to intercede with Jesus So that this illness is eradicated.

We pray to you Therese for the caregivers and for those people Who, relentlessly, take care of those who are ill.
We pray to you Therese for the priests who strive to keep us all close to you
And who selflessly care for the needs of others.

We pray to you Therese for the politicians and those who hold responsibilities Who must make crucial decisions.
We pray to you Therese for the companies which are in difficulty And for all of those people who are unable to go to work.
We pray to you Therese for all of the families who have been affected By this illness, death and confinement.
With you Saint Therese we would like to give thanks For the gestures of solidarity kindled during this ordeal.
Saint Therese, you who promised to let fall a shower of roses. Keep us in faith and in peace, Welcome into Heaven the numerous deceased.
Obtain for us from Jesus resurrected from the dead, the fall and end of this pandemic as a gift of love from the Father, through the power of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Together with you Therese, I say: Our Father
Together with you Therese, I say: Hail Mary

Glory be to the Father and to Son and to the Holy Spirit As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, World without end. Amen.

Saint Therese of the Child Jesus and the Holy Face pray for us.
