

St Wilfrid – Pray for us

ST WILFRID'S DAY

Monday is the solemnity of St Wilfrid. The Fathers and Brothers wish you a very happy feast.

YORK ORATORY MINCE PIE COMPETITION

A socially-distanced Mince Pie Pageant will be held on Saturday 5th December.

There are four categories for entry:

Class 1 Cookery open to all
4 Mince Pies

Class 2 Children's Cookery aged 4-8
2 Mince Pies decorated

Class 3 Children's Cookery aged 8-14
2 Mince Pies decorated

The exhibits to be judged should be dropped off at the Upper Room between 9:30am and 12 noon on Saturday 5th December. Judging will commence at 2pm. Please adhere to social-distancing guidelines when dropping off the exhibits for judging. Full details are on our website.

OUR LIVE STREAM

For now, the kindness of a parishioner enables us to broadcast the Sunday 10.30am Mass and the 12.10pm Mass from Monday to Friday. More will follow. Please go to the York Oratory YouTube Channel.

CHURCH OPENING

St Wilfrid's Church is open every day for Masses, and from 11.30am-4pm. If you can help with stewarding during these times, please tell Fr Richard.

SINGING

Congregational singing is not currently permitted. The 10.30am Mass choir is singing again today. If you are interested in singing at that Mass, or in the chant schola at 12 noon, please speak to Fr Daniel.

COLLECTION

The collection is now taken on your way of church, after Mass. Please be generous: we depend upon you to keep our work going. If you are able to make a standing order, please ask one of the Fathers for details. Also, if you are a taxpayer, please ensure that every donation is gift-aided.

TALKING HEADS

This week's edition of Talking Heads, covering chapters 2 & 3 of Deuteronomy, will be available on our YouTube channel from Monday.
