FIRST SATURDAY DEVOTIONS

Devotions on the first Saturday of the month were asked for by Our Lady of Fatima. This year is the centenary of the Fatima apparitions. Every First Saturday between May and October the St Wilfrid's Legion of Mary will be leading the recitation of the Rosary at 11.30am. Confession will be available from 10.45am and there is Mass at 12.10pm. Please take part on Saturday, 1 July.

SPIRITUAL THEME THIS WEEK

From the earliest times the Church of Rome has honoured the Apostles Peter and Paul in a single feast on the same day, 29 June. Faith in Jesus Christ made them brothers and their martyrdom has made them one. St Peter and St Paul, so different from each other on a human level, were personally chosen by the Lord Jesus and they answered the call by offering their entire life. In both of them the grace of Christ accomplished great things, it transformed them. It transformed them, and how! Simon denied Jesus in a dramatic moment of the Passion; Saul harshly persecuted the Christians. But they both welcomed God's love and allowed themselves to be transformed by his mercy; they thus became friends and apostles of Christ. This is why they continue to speak to the Church and still today they show us the way to salvation. And should we perchance fall into the most serious sins and the darkest of nights, God is always capable of transforming us too, the way he transformed Peter and Paul; transforming the heart and forgiving us for everything, thus transforming the darkness of our sin into a dawn of light. God is like this: he transforms us, he always forgives us, as he did with Peter and as he did with Paul.

The Book of the Acts of the Apostles shows many aspects of their testimony. Peter, for example, teaches us to watch over the poor with the eyes of faith and to give them the most precious thing we have: the power of Jesus' name. He did this with that paralyzed man: he gave him all he had, that is, Jesus.
